None, Rural Lamont County, AB

The original, 1929 - Mundare Hospital, later becoming a convent, and lately renovated as a family residence and the location of a Catholic apostolate . This unique and historic 10,307 sq ft (total space) building sits on 6.47 acres, across the street from the town of Mundare. There are a total of 21 rooms, including 10 washrooms, an enormous laundry room, a large kitchen, and second smaller kitchen, walk-in-fridge big dining room, library, a huge living room, meeting room, offices, sunroom, storage, boiler rooms, and a full chapel. There are 3 generous covered deck areas and a lovely front porch area just off the grand front steps. The building is set back off the main street, with a long driveway and large parking area. The acreage is beautifully treed and offers privacy and much room for recreation. If you are looking for a character building with plenty of opportunities and options, you will be inspired by this charming, historic, gem.

Built in 1929
